

2nd Samuel 24:16 And when the angel stretched out his hand upon Jerusalem to destroy it, the LORD repented him of the evil, and said to the angel that destroyed the people, It is enough: stay now thine hand. And the angel of the LORD was by the threshingplace of Araunah the Jebusite.

The background of the image is a dense field of purple flowers, possibly Ageratum, with many thin, tangled orange vines or creepers winding through them. The overall color palette is dominated by deep purple and vibrant orange, creating a textured and somewhat chaotic visual effect.

2nd Samuel 24:18 And Gad came that day to David, and said unto him, Go up, rear an altar unto the LORD in the threshingfloor of Araunah the Jebusite.

A close-up photograph of several pink, bell-shaped flowers, likely from a Salvia plant, hanging from a stem. The flowers are in various stages of bloom, with some showing the internal structure. The background is a soft-focus green, suggesting foliage. The text is overlaid in white, serif font, centered horizontally and spanning most of the vertical space.

2nd Samuel 24:20 And Araunah looked, and saw the king and his servants coming on toward him: and Araunah went out, and bowed himself before the king on his face upon the ground.

2nd Samuel 24:21 And Araunah said, Wherefore is my lord the king come to his servant? And David said, To buy the threshingfloor of thee, to build an altar unto the LORD, that the plague may be stayed from the people.

2nd Samuel 24:22 And Araunah said unto David, Let my lord the king take and offer up what seemeth good unto him: behold, here be oxen for burnt sacrifice, and threshing instruments and other instruments of the oxen for wood.

The image features two large, vibrant pink roses in the foreground, with lush green leaves and stems visible. The background is a soft-focus green, suggesting more foliage. Overlaid on the image is a white text block with a serif font, containing a biblical verse. The text is arranged in five lines, with the first line being the longest and the last line being the shortest. The text is centered horizontally and positioned in the upper half of the image.

2nd Samuel 24:23 All these things did Araunah, as a king, give unto the king. And Araunah said unto the king, The LORD thy God accept thee.

2nd Samuel 24:24 And the king said unto Araunah, Nay; but I will surely buy it of thee at a price: neither will I offer burnt offerings unto the LORD my God of that which doth cost me nothing. So David bought the threshingfloor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver.
