

Acts 27:29 Then fearing lest we should have fallen upon rocks, they cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day.

Acts 27:30 And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would have cast anchors out of the foreship,

A close-up photograph of several vibrant pink roses in various stages of bloom, set against a background of lush green leaves. The roses are the central focus, with one large, fully open flower in the foreground and several buds and smaller flowers around it. The lighting is soft, highlighting the delicate texture of the petals.

Acts 27:40 And when they had taken up the anchors, they committed themselves unto the sea, and loosed the rudder bands, and hoisted up the mainsail to the wind, and made toward shore.
