

A close-up photograph of golden wheat stalks, showing the intricate details of the grain and the long, thin awns. The wheat is in sharp focus in the foreground, while the background is softly blurred, creating a sense of depth. The warm, golden light suggests a late afternoon or early morning setting. Overlaid on the upper half of the image is a white text block containing a biblical quote.

Genesis 11:07 Go to, let us go down, and there confound their language,
that they may not understand one another's speech.

Exodus 21:35 And if one man's ox hurt another's, that he die; then they shall sell the live ox, and divide the money of it; and the dead ox also they shall divide.

John 13:14 If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet.

1st Corinthians 10:24 Let no man seek his own, but every man another's wealth .

Galatians 06:02 Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ.
