

Word Study for --- KARKOR

A close-up photograph of a cluster of small, light purple lavender flowers. The flowers are nestled within a soft, pink fabric that has been gathered into a pouch-like shape. The background is a blurred mix of green and pink, suggesting an outdoor setting with more foliage.

Judges 08:10 Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor, and their hosts with them, about fifteen thousand men , all that were left of all the hosts of the children of the east: for there fell an hundred and twenty thousand men that drew sword.