

Word Study for --- THEATRE

Acts 19:29 And the whole city was filled with confusion: and having caught Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theatre.

A close-up photograph of several vibrant pink flowers, likely geraniums, with green foliage in the background. The flowers are in sharp focus, showing the texture of the petals and the centers of the blooms. The lighting is bright, creating a soft glow on the petals.

Acts 19:31 And certain of the chief of Asia, which were his friends,
sent unto him, desiring him that he would not adventure himself
into the theatre.
